

Learn how to fix internet connection issues on windows

Imagine yourself attending an online office meeting or attending an online class and suddenly internet stops working, How would you feel then? Annoyed and frustrated right? We know how frustrating and annoyed internet connection issues can be so that is why in this article we will discuss how you can fix internet connection issues on windows device to avoid any interruptions in your online activity.

Disconnect and reconnect to the Wifi connection

This might sound weird but most of the internet issue can be resolved by simply disconnecting and reconnecting to the WiFi network.

Change your network DNS

You might be able to resolve the internet issue by changing your network DNS. Follow this link to get instructions on changing the network DNS on Windows.

Restart your modem

Before restarting the modem do check if you are able to access internet access on other devices.

Flush network DNS and reset your IP

Flushing the DNS cache and resetting your network IP may allows you to regain access to the internet.

- Open command prompt
- Type ipconfig /flushdns and hit Enter
- Type ipconfig /release and hit Enter
- Type ipconfig /renew and hit Enter